

Description

By using a transparent flap (calcareous paper or PVC film) followed by a 1/1 page in the magazine, you obtain an original effect. The transparent flap covers the page and can be printed.

Technical specifications

See inserts. For magazines with stapled back, the back of the insert has to be 10 mm wider than the front.